

Director of the Master In Accounting (MAcc) Program
Department of Accounting
The Pennsylvania State University
Smeal College of Business
University Park, PA

The Department of Accounting in the Smeal College of Business at The Pennsylvania State University seeks a Director for its new MAcc Program, expected to be launched in the fall of 2009.

Job Description/Qualifications: The designation of the position is that of a “Clinical Professor.” This designation represents a non-tenure track appointment in the Department primarily emphasizing academic administration duties, teaching, and student mentoring. Rank is open and will depend upon experience and qualifications.

This position is an ideal appointment for individuals with a proven record of academic administration, excellent teaching and involvement in student advising and mentoring.

A Ph.D.in Accounting, track record of excellent teaching, an experience in industry, practice or academic administration, are preferred.

The initial employment contract may start as early as July 1, 2008 for an initial contract period of three years. This contract is renewable for additional three-year periods subject to mutual agreement at the end of the second year of the contract.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with qualifications.

Application Procedure: Please send a letter of application containing a clear statement of teaching interests and philosophy, a resume, evidence of teaching capabilities, and the names of three references to:

Tammy Snook
Department of Accounting
The Pennsylvania State University
University Park, PA 168021914

Application Deadline: December 31, 2008, or until position is filled.

Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity, and the diversity of its workforce. Candidates from underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply.